

Introduction of Hungarian partners

Foundation for the Support of Inmates and Prison Workers

and

University of Public Service Faculty of Law Enforcement

Two Associations

Foundation for the Support of Inmates and Prison Workers

University of Public Service, Faculty of Law Enforcement, Department of Behavioural Sciences in Law Enforcement

Foundation for the Support of Inmates and Prison Workers

- Founded and based in Tököl
- In 2009
- By the „friends” and supporters of Tököl Prison
- Tököl Prison for Juveniles and Adult Offenders – largest closed institution for juvenile offenders in Hu
- Activities at first mainly concerning Tököl, later broadened country-wise
- No paid staff, unpaid staff: 4, volunteers: 2 people

Scope of interests, areas of activities

- 1) the wellbeing of inmates and prison staff,
 - Realized through in-prison programs for both inmates and staff
 - self-awareness education
 - health promotion programs
 - cultural awareness
 - professional competence
- 2) charity work for prison staff in need
 - financial support
 - mental health support

Projects in detail – F.E.CS.K.E.

- F.E.CS.K.E. Association (Ass for the Support of Young People, Families and Health, www.fecske.com)
- And the Ministry of Human Resources
- “Guilty Victims”
- Creation of self-awareness programs and mental and physical health promotion for juvenile offenders

Projects in detail - KEHOP

- KEHOP 5.4.1. project: Programs Focusing on Raising Awareness in Closed Institutions
- sustainability
- to enhance consciousness related to environmental sustainability.
- both inmates and prison staff (61 staff, 500 inmates)
- outcome: a 3-day-long awareness education program in prison

University of Public Service

- Faculty of Law Enforcement
- Department of Behavioural Sciences in Law Enforcement
- Provides high-level, top quality training for professional (commissioned officers, public servants a public officials for law enforcement organizations)

Partners

Judit Hegedűs PhD,

- associate professor and head of dept at UPS
- head of the foundation

Márta Fekete

- associate lecturer at UPS
- member of the board of trustees of the foundation

Teaching:

- Behavioural sciences: communication, ethics, pedagogy, psychology
- competence-based, small group, informal, experiential edu, interactive group works, workshops

Research:

- child protection, corruption, law enforcement communication, gender-based violence, interrogation techniques, corruption, integrity

Other activities

- „Closed Doors – Open Souls” – in-prison conference
- Membership of the Law Enforcement Pedagogy Chair – Hungarian Educational Research Association (HERA: <https://hera.org.hu/about-us/>)
- Hungarian Association for Migrants – training program for security officials (self awareness, communication, conflict resolution)
- Organization for Security and Co-Operation in Europe: Effective Criminal Justice Strategies and Practices to Combat Gender-Based Violence in Eastern Europe